Enterprises/organisations participating with their employees, as well as unemployed people, who satisfy the HRDA's criteria, are entitled to subsidy.

This training program equips personnel who participate in safety committees as safety representatives with the necessary knowledge and skills to actively and effectively carry out their duties and contribute to cultivating a culture of safety within their company.

At the same time, the program ensures company compliance with the legal framework of the Republic of Cyprus regarding health and safety in the workplace, as the employer is obligated to provide appropriate and adequate training to their employees. Specifically, the training of safety representatives is mandated by the Health and Safety at Work Laws (89(I)/1996) and the new regulations for managing Health and Safety at Work, KDP 158/2021 and KDP 238/2021.

Target Audience:

The training program is intended for employees who are selected, elected, or appointed by their colleagues as "Safety Representatives." Safety representatives act on behalf of their fellow employees in all matters related to workplace health and safety.

The term "Safety Representatives" is defined in Article 2(1) of the Health and Safety at Work Laws of 1996 to 2020.
